Kim Yong Nam made a report. Upon authorization of Supreme Leader Kim Jong Un, he warmly congratulated all the service personnel and people throughout the country on the 70th anniversary of the DPRK, paying tribute to the anti-Japanese revolutionary forerunners, KPA martyrs and patriots who laid down their precious lives for the cause of national freedom and independence and the happiness of the people.

He extended greetings to the fellow countrymen in the south and overseas compatriots, welcoming the foreign friends attending the meeting.

He said that the foundation of the DPRK by President Kim Il Sung on September 9 1948 was a great historic event as he successfully realized the long-cherished desire of the Korean people to establish a genuine government of the working people.

He added that the Korean people were born again as dignified and powerful people who take their destinies into their own hands and that the country, once eclipsed in the world map, emerged as a full-fledged independent and sovereign state in the international arena.

He noted that the DPRK has steadily advanced along the road of building a powerful socialist country for seven decades since its foundation.

President Kim Il Sung and Chairman Kim Jong Il set the Juche idea as the guiding ideology of the state and built the country into an advantageous and powerful socialist state, perfectly solving all the problems arising in the state building and activities through their indefatigable leadership, he said.

The history of the DPRK is that of victory as the country advanced straight ahead without any slight line mistake and political turns and twists, that of dramatic change as it brought about the greatest change under the most difficult conditions with the might of self-reliance and self-development and that of creation as it set an example of the times in the building of a government centred on the masses of the people, he noted, adding that herein lies the greatness of the 70-year history of the DPRK.

He said that the country has consistently adhered to national independence and the state-building idea of love for the people, which the DPRK flag reflects, in the 70-year-long course, adding that the state and the people are proud of it.

He referred to the fact that the DPRK has made dynamic efforts to reunify the country under the banner of national independence and the great national unity and positively contributed to the accomplishment of the cause of global independence, consistently adhering to the idea of the foreign policy— independence, peace and friendship.

The DPRK is, indeed, the greatest patriotic legacy and the country of eternal Sun, which was built and passed on to the coming generations by Kim Il Sung and Kim Jong Il, peerless patriots and fathers of the Korean nation, he stated.

Noting that the DPRK has entered the prospering period for building a powerful socialist country under the leadership of Kim Jong Un, he said the Supreme Leader has wisely led it so that it could preserve the revolutionary nature as a Juche-oriented socialist state and successfully realize the patriotic desire of the great leaders for building a powerful country.

He called on all the service personnel and people to devotedly defend the WPK Central Committee led by Kim Jong Un and strengthen the single-minded unity and the politico-ideological might, the strongest might of their state.

The DPRK government will as ever vigorously struggle for the improvement of north-south relations and national reunification, eternal peace and stability of the Korean peninsula and building of a new just world, he stressed.

Similar meetings also took place in provinces, cities and counties across the country.
