Talks held between DPRK and Chinese leaders

Kim Jong Un, chairman of the Workers' Party of Korea and chairman of the State Affairs Commission of the DPRK, held talks with Xi Jinping, general secretary of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of China and president of the People's Republic of China, on Thursday afternoon.

DPRK Supreme Leader Kim Jong Un and his wife Ri Sol Ju visited the Kumsusan State Guesthouse and exchanged warm greetings and had a pleasant chat with Chinese President Xi Jinping and his wife Peng Liyuan in a family atmosphere before having a photo taken against the background of the national flags of the two countries.

Then, talks were held between the top leaders of the two countries.

Present there from the DPRK side were Choe Ryong Hae, Kim Jae Ryong, Ri Yong Ho, Ri Su Yong and Kim Su Gil.

The Chinese attendees were Ding Xuexiang, Yang Jiechi, Wang Yi, He Lifeng, Song Tao, Zhong Shan and Miao Hua.

Warmly welcoming Xi Jinping's visit to the DPRK in this year of the 70th anniversary of the establishment of bilateral diplomatic relations, Kim Jong Un said his visit will be a decisive occasion to demonstrate the immutability and invincibility of the DPRK-China friendship to the whole world and is of great significance in further consolidating the bilateral ties that have entered a new stage of vitality.

The Chinese President said he was very pleased to meet the Korean counterpart again and expressed thanks to senior Korean Party and government officials, leading officials of military organs and Pyongyang citizens for warmly welcoming him.

The two leaders informed each other of the situations of their countries and the successes their Parties and peoples have made in their efforts to advance the cause of socialist construction, and expressed their full support and solidarity to them.

They emphasized that it is the consistent stand of the Parties and governments of their countries to develop the traditional friendship and cooperative relations as required by the times and it fully conforms to the aspirations and fundamental interests of the peoples of the two countries. They proposed good plans for marking the 70th anniversary of bilateral diplomatic relations more significantly and exchanged views on them.

Both sides agreed on making positive joint efforts to promote close strategic communication between the two Parties and countries, deepen mutual understanding and trust, maintain the tradition of high-level visit and strengthen exchange and cooperation in every field.

The top leaders made an extensive exchange of views on important international and regional issues including the Korean peninsula situation, and appreciated that to further develop in depth the ties between the two Parties and countries conforms to the common interests of the countries and facilitates regional peace, stability and development now that serious and complicated changes are happening in international and regional situations.

The talks proceeded in a comradely, sincere and candid atmosphere and achieved common understanding of the issues discussed.

Kim Jong Un hosts banquet in honour of Xi Jinping

Supreme Leader Kim Jong Un and his wife Ri Sol Ju hosted a banquet on Thursday evening in honour of the visiting Chinese President Xi Jinping and his wife Peng Liyuan.

The Korean leader and his wife gladly greeted the Chinese counterparts at the venue.

Present there were Choe Ryong Hae, Pak Pong Ju, Kim Jae Ryong and other senior Party and government officials, and commanding officers of the Korean People's Army.

Invited to the banquet were the Chinese entourage including Ding Xuexiang, Yang Jiechi, Wang Yi, He Lifeng and Song Tao, as well as staff members of the Chinese embassy in Pyongyang.

As he made a speech at the event, Kim Jong Un warmly welcomed General Secretary Xi Jinping and his wife, who came with warm feelings of friendship of the Chinese people, on behalf of the Central Committee of the Workers' Party of Korea, the DPRK government, all Party members and other Korean people.

Pyongyang citizens' enthusiastic cheers in every street of the city today reflect the deep feeling of friendship of the Korean Party and people towards the General Secretary and the Chinese Party and people and this is a strong demonstration of the great DPRK-China friendship, he said.

He recalled that the revolutionaries and peoples of the two countries had integrated their destiny into one in the flames of the sacred struggle for realizing the common socialist idea in the early days of their struggle and provided valuable traditions of genuine comradeship, unity, support and cooperation.

Through the past four rounds of meetings and talks with the General Secretary, he reaffirmed the truth that socialism is the invariable core of bilateral ties and the distinctive features and invincibility of the bilateral ties lie in joining efforts to defend and glorify socialism, he said, adding the General Secretary's visit serves as full political support and encouragement to the Korean Party members and other people who are out to accomplish the cause of socialism.

Expressing the belief that the two countries would as ever unite and surely win brilliant victories in their efforts for advancing the cause of socialism, he emphasized that he firmly believes the Chinese Party and people would achieve greater successes in their efforts to perform a new miracle of the Chinese nation under the guidance of the General Secretary.

In his reply speech, Xi Jinping extended his sincerest greetings and heartfelt thanks to Chairman Kim Jong Un and his wife, the Party, government and people of the DPRK on behalf of the Chinese counterparts for the grand and warm welcome accorded by senior Party, government and military officials of the DPRK and other hundreds of thousands of Korean people.

Noting that the Korean Party and people have made notable achievements in the face of manifold hardships and difficulties by uniting single-mindedly and working stubbornly under the leadership of President Kim Il Sung, General Secretary Kim Jong Il and Chairman Kim Jong Un, Xi Jinping referred to the new upswing the Korean Party and people are effecting in socialist construction in one mind under the indomitable leadership of Kim Jong Un.

He was convinced that the socialist cause of the DPRK would steadily register fresh and bigger successes and advance towards a more beautiful future under the guidance of the WPK headed by Kim Jong Un.

The Chinese Party, government and people firmly support Chairman Kim Jong Un leading the Korean Party, government and people to keep the road of socialism, enforce a new strategic line and give impetus to the political settlement of the peninsula issue and thus create a good environment for self-development, he said.

He expressed his willingness to jointly carve out a beautiful future of bilateral relations and that of durable peace and co-prosperity in the region by inheriting history, shaping future and achieving unity and cooperation together with the DPRK side.

The banquet proceeded in a warm and amicable atmosphere.

Korean, Chinese leaders see grand artistic performance

Supreme Leader Kim Jong Un and President Xi Jinping enjoyed the grand mass gymnastics and artistic performance “Invincible Socialism” on Thursday evening.

Kim Jong Un and his wife Ri Sol Ju, together with Xi Jinping and his wife Peng Liyuan, appeared on the platform of May Day Stadium amid the playing of the welcoming music.

The two leaders warmly waved back to the enthusiastically cheering crowds.

Among the audience were Choe Ryong Hae, Pak Pong Ju, Kim Jae Ryong and other senior Party and government officials, officials of the armed forces, ministries and national agencies and Pyongyang citizens.

Present there at invitation were Ding Xuexiang, Yang Jiechi, Wang Yi, He Lifeng, Song Tao and other members of the Chinese President’s entourage, staff members of the Chinese embassy in Pyongyang, Chinese guests and students staying in the DPRK.

Minister of Culture Pak Chun Nam, in his opening address, said the grand artistic performance was specially prepared to welcome the friendly mission of the Chinese people.

Amid the playing of song DPRK-

China Friendship Is Everlasting, the national flags of the two countries were hoisted.

The performers artistically represented the course of development replete with glory and heroic struggle of the DPRK which has emerged as a socialist state independent in politics, self-supporting in the economy and self-reliant in defence, winning great victories and bringing about epochal changes under the leadership of the WPK with the peerlessly great men held in high esteem.

The performance deeply touched the audience as it demonstrated the Koreans’ will to always throw in their lot with socialism with ardent love for the system they have defended for decades through generations, in elegant rhythms, vigorous gymnastic movements and kaleidoscopic large-size background scenes.

Prestigious art troupes put on stage such Chinese songs as No New China without Communist Party and We Sing of Motherland, impressively representing the thoughts and emotions of the Chinese people who are achieving the rejuvenation of their nation under the guidance of the Communist Party of China.

Thunderous applause broke out as the background flashcards displayed pictures of historic events showing deep comradely trust and friendship which were forged by the leaders of the elder generations of the two countries and are being steadily carried forward by the top Party leaders of the two countries.

Friendly feelings swept through the stadium as performers staged Chinese folk and welcome dances and spread out letters “Long live the invincible friendship and unity between the peoples of the DPRK and China!” on the background.

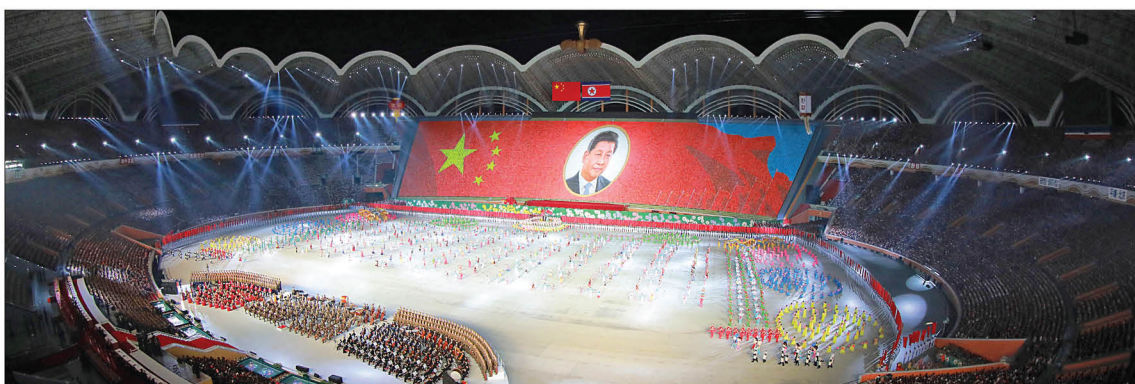

The performance captivated the audience as it manifested the invincibility of socialism—the precious asset the two peoples won at the cost of blood and common cause.

It ended with a dazzling fireworks display illuminating the night of friendship.

Floral baskets were delivered to the performers.

The top leaders and their wives went down to the stage to congratulate the performers on their successful performance.

“Invincible Socialism” adorned another brilliant page in the history of DPRK-China friendship and unity which entered a great new era.

Top leaders pose with senior WPK officials at Party headquarters

Chairman Kim Jong Un met with General Secretary Xi Jinping at the office building of the Central Committee of the Workers' Party of Korea and they had a photo session with members of the Political Bureau of the WPK Central Committee on Thursday afternoon.

When Xi Jinping arrived at the building of the WPK Central Committee, all the members of the committee warmly welcomed him.

Kim Jong Un and his wife Ri Sol Ju gladly greeted Xi Jinping and his wife Peng Liyuan in front of the building.

Welcoming Xi Jinping who visited the headquarters of the WPK Central Committee with particular friendly feelings, Kim Jong Un had a firm comradely handshake with the Chinese leader.

Department directors of the WPK Central Committee presented bouquets to Xi Jinping and Peng Liyuan.

With the introduction from Kim Jong Un, Xi Jinping exchanged greetings with each of the members of the Political Bureau of the WPK Central Committee, deepening the bonds of comradely trust between the two Parties of the two countries.

The leaders and their wives had a photo taken together with the members of the Political Bureau of the WPK Central Committee against the background of the office building of the Party Central Committee, an event which would go down in the histories of the two Parties.
