The guard of honour of the KPA Navy solemnly lined up waiting for the moment of glory.

The national anthem of the DPRK was solemnly played.

Jo Chun Ryong, secretary of the Central Committee of the WPK, delivered a launching address.

He said: The 5 000-tonnage destroyer, which is equipped with the most powerful weapons and which has been built by the workers in the field of our warship-building industry, is to record a sacred new name of the defender in the blue sea of the country. It is a very encouraging reality and an event marking decisive progress in the course of strengthening the war capability of the Navy that we have perfectly built the modern destroyer in a little over 400 days with our own strength and technology.

Yun Chi Gol, manager of the Nampho Shipyard, made a speech in reply.

He proudly reported that the workers of the Nampho Shipyard are prepared for presenting the first new-generation destroyer of the DPRK to the Ninth Congress of the WPK as a gift of patriotic loyalty by honourably implementing the decision of the Eleventh Plenary Meeting of the Eighth Central Committee of the WPK on building a modern destroyer.

Pak Jong Chon announced a written order of the Central Military Commission of the WPK on the grading regulations, name and number of the new-type multi-mission destroyer and conveyed it to the commander of the East Sea Fleet of the KPA Navy.

On the order of the Central Military Commission of the WPK signed by Kim Jong Un, the newly-built new-type 5 000-tonnage multi-mission destroyer was graded and classified as the Choe Hyon class and named after the anti-Japanese revolutionary fighter Choe Hyon, a model military activist who had made boundless loyalty to the leader part of his mental qualities, an elder of the armed forces of the DPRK and a veteran general.

Kim Jong Un conferred the ensign of destroyer Choe Hyon on the commanding officers of the East Sea Fleet of the KPA Navy.

Vice Admiral Pak Kwang Sop, commander of the East Sea Fleet, made a speech of pledge.

No Kwang Chol, minister of National Defence of the DPRK, cut the rope as a token of the ceremony of launching the destroyer.

Amid the sound of the warship whistle at the naval port, a powerful entity revealed its magnificent appearance in the sea of the country signalling the advent of a new era of modernization of the Navy. And confetti and coloured tapes were poured out, fireworks were set off and balloons flew up, reflecting the excitement and joy of this historic moment.

Kim Jong Un mounted the destroyer.

The respected Comrade Kim Jong Un places a flower before the relief image of Choe Hyon and pays high tribute to him.

The warship had the honour of undergoing the first inspection by the head of state.

After receiving the salute of the captain, Kim Jong Un met with seamen and gave them warm militant encouragement, going round the stem and quarter deck of the warship.

The memorial relief image of anti-Japanese revolutionary fighter Choe Hyon was unveiled on the destroyer.

Kim Jong Un placed a flower before the relief image of Choe Hyon and paid high tribute to him.

He said that the absolute loyalty to the leader and the spirit of unconditionally implementing the orders and instructions of the leader constitute the core of the revolutionary traits and military temperament of Choe Hyon, adding that the seas of the country will remain unperturbed and the ever-victorious tradition will continuously be carried forward when the reputation and noble soul of the veteran general whose mere name used to strike horror into the hearts of the two imperialist powers become the symbol of invincibility and militant banner of our Navy.

Kim Jong Un got off the warship and met the meritorious persons of the Nampho Shipyard who had contributed to the building of the destroyer.

He highly appreciated that the historic event which can be called a new birth of the Juche-oriented Navy could be brought about thanks to the patriotic and inexhaustible efforts and enthusiasm of the workers, scientists and technicians of the Nampho Shipyard who are supporting with absolute loyalty and devoted efforts the strategic line and policies on building up the national defence clarified by the WPK.

journey towards building an advanced maritime power, on April 25, the birthday of the first revolutionary armed forces of Korea, Kim Jong Un extended militant encouragement to the workers, technicians and officials of the Nampho Shipyard who had successfully built the new-type destroyer true to the Party's line of strengthening the naval forces, and to the scientists, technicians and workers in the field of the shipbuilding industry who are struggling as the main force of the revolution in the warship-building industry in the new era.

After making a stern analysis of the situation in the vicinity which poses a very serious threat to the security environment of the DPRK, he said that the strength to launch aggression is directly proportional to the strength to prevent it, and set forth the plan of the WPK to radically bolster up the war capability of the Navy in line with the justness and necessity of the possession of pelagic fleet, the prerequisite for national security and the world trend of developing the naval forces and the detailed ways for implementing the plan.

His speech is an immortal great programme which is of great theoretical and practical significance in leading the revolution in the warship-building industry in the new era to a steady upsurge and remarkably strengthening the DPRK Navy into a core service for national defence and a component of nuclear war deterrent.

Kim Jong Un had a significant photo session with the commanding officers and seamen of the destroyer Choe Hyon against the background of the warship.

He expressed great expectation and conviction that all the seamen of the destroyer would steadfastly carry forward the indomitable faith and tradition of victory cherished by the pioneering generation of the Korean revolution and thus become the brave warriors of the sea fully guaranteeing the prosperity of the country and the peace and happiness of the people by force of arms and create a new legendary tale of heroes of the Juche-oriented Navy.

Highly appreciating the feats performed by the generals of the past days who had long served at the Navy's important posts and recorded immortal exploits in the history of the Navy with boundless self-sacrificing spirit and indomitable mettle, he said that their great spirit should be invariably carried forward as the eternal soul of defence.

Kim Jong Un who is making an uninterrupted journey of devoted efforts for the accelerated growth of the national defence capability and the people's peace, was courteously seen off by the leading officials of the Nampho Shipyard and discharged navy generals.

The ceremony of launching the new-type multi-mission destroyer held in the presence of Kim Jong Un will shine for ever in history as an auspicious event heralding the new birth of the DPRK Navy and a great event that powerfully demonstrated before the whole world the spirit of advance and sure victory of our state and people dynamically advancing towards the grand goal of building an advanced maritime power.

Respected Comrade Kim Jong Un Has Photo Taken with Workers of Nampho Shipyard and Scientists and Technicians in Field of Warship-building Industry, Who Made Contribution to Building New-type Destroyer

Kim Jong Un, general secretary of the Workers' Party of Korea and president of the State Affairs of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea, on April 29 met and encouraged the workers of the Nampho Shipyard and scientists and technicians in the field of the warship-building industry who had made an important breakthrough in the modernization of the Navy in the new era.

He extended warm congratulations and encouragement to the workers, scientists and technicians in the field of the warship-building industry, who had proved in practice the validity of the revolution in the warship-building industry determined by the Party and the inevitability of victory in it, true to the strategic plan of the Party Central Committee.

He said that very great is the Party Central Committee's expectation of the Nampho Shipyard, which occupies a key position in building a maritime power in the 21st century with the radical growth of the warship-building industry and the making of the naval forces high-tech as its core.

Expressing his conviction that the workers of the Nampho

Shipyard would make more vigorous efforts as befits the proud creator in building the future of our Navy and the honourable pioneer in modernizing the shipbuilding industry in the future, too, he had a photo taken with them against the background of the destroyer Choe Hyon.

Combat Application Test of Weapon Systems of Multi-mission Destroyer Choe Hyon Begins

Kim Jong Un, general secretary of the Workers' Party of Korea and president of the State Affairs of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea, sees the first test-fire together with leading officials of the Missile Administration, the Academy of Defence Sciences, the Detection and Electronic Warfare Administration and the Nampho Shipyard.

The combat application test of the weapon systems of the multi-mission destroyer Choe Hyon began.

The DPRK Missile Administration, the Academy of Defence Sciences and the Detection and Electronic Warfare Administration launched a performance and combat application test of the weapon systems mounted on the destroyer Choe Hyon.

The first round of the test of the weapon systems of the destroyer was conducted on April 28 and 29.

The test-fire of supersonic cruise missile, strategic cruise missile, anti-aircraft missile and 127mm shipboard automatic gun took place on April 28.

Kim Jong Un, general secretary of the Workers' Party of Korea and president of the State Affairs of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea, saw the first test-fire together with leading officials of the Missile Administration, the Academy of Defence Sciences, the Detection and Electronic Warfare Administration and the Nampho Shipyard.

He got on the destroyer that would undergo the scheduled weapon systems test, and acquainted himself in detail with the phased schedule and contents of the test from members of the weapon system examination group, before watching the first test-fire.

The power of the 127mm shipboard automatic gun attracted close attention of the leading officials.

Highly appreciating that the combat application test of shipboard weapon systems had been prepared with foresight and started promptly, Kim Jong Un underscored the need to perfect the warship's weapon systems for integrated operation in a short span of time by strictly conducting the test as planned.

He highly appreciated the shipboard firepower system once again, saying that it is a very wonderful system of the Korean style, which effectively combined the most powerful strike means including supersonic cruise missile, strategic cruise missile and tactical ballistic missile with the conventional defensive means of the warship.

Noting that a destroyer discharging the conventional mission of merely repulsing the enemy invading the territorial waters cannot be called a reliable means of maritime defence, Kim Jong Un said that it is important to establish a proactive and aggressive defence system on the premise of powerful attack capability and that it is a major task facing the field of the warship-building industry of the DPRK to steadily raise the level of equipment of offensive and defensive complex system, into which high-tech means of a new generation are introduced, and thus put the multi-mission and multi-purpose performance of warship on a higher level.

Saying that it is high time to make a responsible option for accelerating the nuclearization of the Navy in order to defend the state and its maritime sovereignty from the existing and prospective threats, he set forth tasks to this end.

On April 29, the test-fire of anti-ship tactical guided weapon, various kinds of shipboard automatic guns and smoke and electronic jamming guns took place.

Registered as World Geopark

The Mt Paektu Geopark is a geological research and dissemination base and a tourist attraction with geosites, distributed on a certain scale, of special volcanic-geological significance and touristic value.

It is of special ecological, historical and cultural values in combination with the humanistic landscape of the park area created by volcanic actions, thus drawing a global attention.

Jong Il Peak

Jong Il Peak is a hornito formed in the course of highly viscous magma being cooled and solidified while ascending at a slow speed about two million years ago. It is a geosite of great significance in giving a scientific understanding of the formation and denudation processes of the hornito.

Geological section at Kat Peak and some animals and plants

The geopark has scores of geosites of scientific research, educational and touristic values.

Among them, the geological section at Kat Peak is a geosite of great significance in volcanology as it shows on a section the volcanic products of different styles.

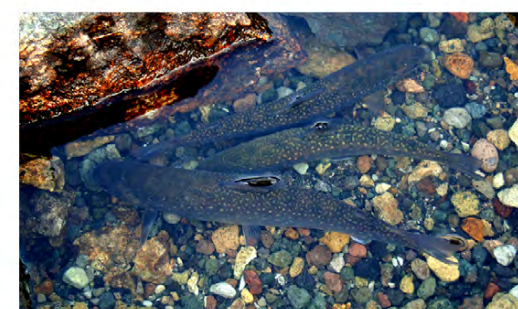

In the Mt Paektu area can be seen rich biodiversity formed by the ceaselessly-changed flora and fauna during several volcanic eruptions and their evolutions.

Lake Samji

A non-drainage lake formed by volcanic actions in the Mt Paektu area, Lake Samji is of great significance in studying the process of the volcanic eruptions.

Rimyongsu Falls

Rimyongsu Falls was formed by erosion of basalt spouted in Mt Paektu.

It has nine main streams between countless streamlets running down like beads.

An underground waterfall which never dries all the year round, it gushes out with the volume of 0.8 cubic metres per second.

As underground water gushes out between cliffs, the falls is an uncommon geological heritage of great international significance.

Samjiyon, where the Mt Paektu Geopark is situated, has turned into a model mountain city in the northern part of the country.

Various events held in the city's cultural and sports facilities make the visitors have a deeper understanding of the geopark and the region's culture.

Natural Stone Dressing Base in Mt Suyang Area

- Visit to the Haeju Aeguk Stone Dressing Factory -

Mt Suyang in the city of Haeju, South Hwanghae Province, is well known for the rich deposit of granite. The Haeju Aeguk Stone Dressing Factory is situated by the mountain.

The factory has greatly contributed to the construction of monumental buildings by supplying a lot of high-class stone products.

In recent years the management and workers have renovated their factory.

They have greatly reduced the production cost while putting production on a stable basis by installing a rail track for transporting the stone materials from the quarry to the processing site, built a base for producing saws, and secured parts and devices for stone processing by their own efforts. Its technical staff has developed programs for controlling the production equipment, thus establishing labour- and energy-saving production lines.

This has made it possible for the workers to finely process even huge stone blocks.

Rough stones produced at the quarry are processed into different kinds of stone works of various sizes, including slabs, railings and kerbs.

The entire production line, from processing to delivery, is controlled by the integrated production system.

Under the banner of self-reliance based on science and technology, the management and workers of the factory are giving a spur to their effort to increase production of stone products necessary for major construction projects.

Pyongyang Metro

The Pyongyang Metro is one of the public means of transport for the citizens.

After its inauguration in September 1973, it has become a monumental structure in the era of the Workers' Party through several stages of construction.

The metro has been loved by the people as an "underground palace" and "underground Pyongyang" as it eases the strain on passenger traffic and its stations are decorated with large mosaics and embossed carvings depicting the course of development of the country and the happy life of the people.

It underwent facelift from the 2010s.

The respected Comrade Kim Jong Un went over a large number of designs of the stations for the reconstruction project.

As a result the metro is renewing its appearance in the 2020s while new streets and structures are being built above the ground for the improvement of the cultural and leisure activities of the people in Pyongyang.

The reconstruction project went on with Kaeson, Moranbong, Jonsung, Jonu, Pulgunbyol and Hyoksin stations. This year the Yonggwang and Puksong stations have been reconstructed.

As the stations' ceilings and illuminations were renovated to be more modern and elegant, their artistic and formative beauty was raised to a higher level.

Platforms, corridors and walls along the escalators are decorated with pictures depicting the architectural structures newly built in different parts of the country and the civilized life the people are enjoying.

Facilities that offer convenience to passengers have newly been installed.

With the scenery of Pyongyang changing every year on and under the ground, people's delight in taking the metro is getting greater.

Wetland in Rason

The wetland in Rason is a treasury of nature with diverse and abundant ecosystems in the areas of the estuary of the Tuman River in the northern tip of the DPRK and waters off Josan Bay in the East Sea of Korea.

The water area encompassing Manpho, Tongbonpho and Sobonpho in Kulphodong, Sonbong District, Rason, is an ideal habitat for migratory birds.

There are a lot of lakes and swamps in the locality, so it consists in a biome with a wide area of flooded grasslands which are home to aquatic plants, gramineous plants, Cyperus amuricus Maxim family plants and many other kinds of plants, and with a thick forest of pine trees, overcup oaks, sweet briars and Weigela florida at the seaside.

The birds recorded in this area are of more than 300 species.

The Rason Migratory Bird Reserve has more species of birds than other major migratory bird reserves in the country, which means that it plays the most important role

In the biome covering forests, clear lakes, swamps and coastal waters in the Rason region can be seen diverse plants and animals including such mammals as roe deer, squirrel, Tamias sibiricus and wildcat, dozens of kinds of insects, such aquatic animals as fish, shellfish, sea urchin and shrimp, and such sea animals as seal and eared seal.

As it is in a geographical position with favourable feeding and hiding conditions, it has been an important habitat of migratory birds and their stop-over place.

The wetland was registered in 1995 as a national migratory bird reserve and in 2018 as Ramsar site.

The wetland ecosystem in Rason is getting more diverse and enriched thanks to the state's positive protection policy.
